Dynamic Catholic

“He, who hears the Word and understands it, bears fruit.”

Dynamic Catholics never tire of deepening the knowledge of their faith. They seek to understand more than what the words appear to say on the surface. Study, faith-sharing groups, and the readings, all form an integral part of their life.

Friendly Reminder

Now that the hot weather is upon us and we are using the air conditioners in the church, we ask that you please help us keep the cost down by making sure the church doors are kept closed. We are doing our best to make it as comfortable as possible.

If you find it too cold, please bring a sweater or jacket with you or sit where you will be away from the cold air blowing on you. We ask for your help and understanding in this matter.

Thank You for your Support for our Baby Bottle Project

Are You Serious . . .

A mother entered her daughter's bedroom and noticed a letter placed on the bed.

With the worst premonition, she read it, holding it with trembling hands:

"It is with great regret and sorrow that I'm telling you that I eloped with my new boyfriend.

I have found real passion and he is so nice, with all his piercings and tattoos and his big motorcycle. But it's not only that, Mom; I'm pregnant and Butch said that we will be very happy in his trailer in the woods. He wants to have more children, and that's one of my dreams.

I've learned that marijuana doesn't hurt anyone and we'll be growing it for us and his friends, who are providing us with all the cocaine and ecstasies we may want. In the meantime, we'll pray for the science to find an AIDS cure, so Butch will get better; he deserves that.

Don't worry Mom. I'm 16 years old now and I know how to take care of myself.

Someday, I'll visit, so you will get to know your grandchildren.

Your daughter, Judith

PS: Mom, it's not true. I'm at the neighbour's house. I just wanted to show you that there are worse things in life than the school report card that's in my desk drawer . . . I love you!"
